

Cultural Competency Conference 2016

The Importance of Cultural Competency in the Workplace

In an effort to build bridges to the larger community and provide a wider focus to experiences of diversity, all mental health counselors, licensed clinical social workers, marriage & family therapists, human resources, diversity and organization-wide managers and administrators are invited to attend “The Importance of Cultural Competency in the Workplace” conference.

Keynote Speaker: James E. Wright, PHR, SHRM-CP, CDR Diversity & Inclusion Strategist

When: July 22 – Pre-Conference Social 5:00-8:00 p.m.
July 23 – Conference 8:00 a.m. – 4:00 p.m.

Where: Hodges University Naples Campus – John White Community Room
2655 Northbrooke Drive, Naples, FL 34119

Cost: $100 – Individual
$50 – HU Alumni
Free – HU Employees and Students

Earn: Six (6) CEUs through Genesis Counseling of Fort Myers
Florida Board of Mental Health Counselors, Clinical Social Workers and Marriage and Family Therapists
Provider #50-806, exp. 03/31/17

To learn about sponsorship opportunities or for more information, contact Gail B. Williams, Chief Diversity Officer, at gwilliams@hodges.edu.

HODGES
UNIVERSITY

Register for the conference online at www.hodges.edu/diversity/conference.aspx